

Recipe for success; Passion, Art & Smile

As you walk into Dr Bahar Nia's personally designed office adorned with Romero Britto artwork, your senses are immediately captivated with gourmet coffee, soothing scents, fresh orchid arrangements and smiling staff members. You take a seat in the patient concierge area and are mesmerized by the gorgeous marble reception area and surrounding interiors.

These walls house many accolades and recognitions along with many national and local publications. Dr. Bahar Nia is also an active member of many academic societies including American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry.

By the time you look around and try to take all of it in, there walks in a beautiful, well dressed and smiling Dr. Bahar Nia, showing glimpses of her fashion loving side in her outfit and designer fitted white coat. She welcomes you to the office and shakes your hand firmly and you just feel her genuine warmth. She then sits at the other side of the table and starts with a lighthearted comment and completely takes you by surprise that she is so young and yet so accomplished.

Her humble yet confident demeanor is probably what brings people from hours away to seek cosmetic makeovers and smile transformations. Her office has truly state-of-the-art equipment with an in-house ceramic lab, CT scan imaging and even a complete photo studio with professional lighting. Every room has been planned so carefully. She has designed and planned every single inch of this office including the decor and the coolest items in the rooms, including a personalized HD TV above your chair for convenient viewing. As a second-generation cosmetic dentist she prides herself that she has inherited her father's office etiquette and patient relationship skills that keeps people returning and has made her one of the most prominent dentists in Atlanta in such a short time.

She is an IVY league trained dentist from the prestigious University of Pennsylvania. Plus she has had extensive post-doctoral residency training in sedation and cosmetic dentistry. Her passion for being a dentist started at a very young age and her love and joy for her career is evident from her demeanor and presence. This is for sure the last piece that completes the puzzle of why people don't mind traveling to the heart of Atlanta to meet this award winning dentist.

Dr. Bahar Nia is married to her fellow classmate Frank and has two precious little girls that she calls the apple of her eyes and does so much with their school while belonging and being involved in so many charitable foundations to give back and fulfill her duty as a great citizen.

This is truly an experience you'll have to see for yourself. We know Dr. Bahar Nia and her team will leave you pleasantly surprised and with an exceptional and everlasting smile. ■
